United Methodist Museum: Reopening

The United Methodist Museum is now open on Sundays from 9 am-1 pm. We are very excited to begin offering limited in person services. We care about the safety of our patrons and want us all to continue to be as safe as possible. We require that all patrons wear masks while visiting the museum and practice social distancing. For more information visit our website at arumc.org.

UMMAC Internship Program

The United Methodist Museum offers internships for the 2021-2022 Fall and Winter seasons. If you are a self-starter who is comfortable working independently, consider an internship with the United Methodist Museum. Applicants should have background or is seeking a degree in history, business, or museum work. Positions to be filled are: Gallery Assistant, Development Assistant, and Oral History interns. Visit our website arumc.org for more information or email us at ummac.lr@gmail.com

Funding has been provided to United Methodist Museum from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) as part of the American Rescue Plan (ARP), and the NEH Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan (SHARP) initiative.
