Oral History Project

The United Methodist Museum's oral history project "Recording the Leaders of our Faith" recently finished an interview with Ed Matthews. We would like to send a special thanks to Ed Matthews for agreeing to contribute to our oral history project. His interview is invaluable and is important to Methodist history. Let's continue to record our history.

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the United States Congress.

Oral History Intern

The United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference would like to say congratulations to our new intern, Chad Hornsby. Chad has an undergraduate degree from Hendrix College, where he majored in Religious Studies focusing on Biblical texts and history. We would like to welcome Chad and appreciate his interest in our program.

Preserving Methodist History

Are you aware of some items from closed UM churches or retired UM ministers that might have historic value? Email us.

Volunteers Needed!

Would you like to learn more about Methodist history? We need volunteers for a ½ day on Wednesday per week or month to work in the Museum. Contact us via email for information.

Donate Today!

Support the work of the museum with a tax-deductible donation or by donating a relevant historical artifact. Get details on our website.
