Siloam Springs Heritage Festival

United Methodist Museum will be attending the Siloam Springs Heritage Festival. The festival will be held in the Historic Twin Springs Park on Saturday, June 26, 2021. Siloam Springs is home of John Brown University. This Christian University was founded in 1919. We are proud to be a part of this festival. Come visit our booth. We would love to see you there.

Oral History Project

The United Methodist Museum's oral history project "Recording the Leaders of our Faith" recently finished an interview with Asa Whitaker. We would like to send a special thanks to Asa Whitaker for agreeing to contribute to our oral history project, and to our Oral History Intern Chad Hornsby for conducting the interview. These interviews are invaluable and are important to Methodist History. Let's continue to record our history.

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the United States Congress.

Preserving Methodist History

Are you aware of some items from closed UM churches or retired UM ministers that might have historic value? Email us.

Volunteers Needed!

Would you like to learn more about Methodist history? We need volunteers for a ½ day on Wednesday per week or month to work in the Museum. Contact us via email for information.

Donate Today!

Support the work of the museum with a tax-deductible donation or by donating a relevant historical artifact. Get details on our website.
