Virtual Exhibition Number 3

Bishop Hall: Bishops with Arkansas Connections will be the third virtual exhibit in a series of exhibitions that will be available to view on our website. This virtual tour explores bishops with Arkansas connections. The exhibit will be available to view on our website at the end of January.

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the United States Congress.

Forever a Member

The United Methodist Museum would like to thank Martha Sowell. Martha Sowell has been a valued member of the committee for years and has been key in advancing the mission of the United Methodist museum. She was instrumental in acquiring grant funds and creating the Endowment Fund. Sowell's connections in the community help to increase visitor numbers, awareness, and donations and loans that allow us to bring our exhibits to life for our visitors to see. Martha has a brilliant mind and the kindest heart. We hope her move out of state brings a glorious new chapter in her life. Thank you Martha Sowell.

Preserving Methodist History

Are you aware of some items from closed UM churches or retired UM ministers that might have historic value and is appropriate for the Museum? Give us a call – we welcome donated artifacts.

Volunteers Needed!

Would you like to learn more about Methodist history? We need volunteers for a ½ day on Wednesday per week or month to work in the Museum. Contact us via email for information.

Donate Today!

Support the work of the museum with a tax-deductible donation or by donating a relevant historical artifact. Get details on our website: arumc.org.
