Virtual Exhibition on our Website

Visit our website to check out our latest virtual tours. These exhibits showcase United Methodist Museum's permanent and temporary exhibit. To explore the virtual tours and receive the latest information visit our website at arumc.org.

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the United States Congress.

Oral History Project

The United Methodist Museum's oral history project "Recording the Leaders of our Faith Project" is underway. Our next interview will be with Bishop Gary Mueller. Muller was elected episcopal leader of the United Methodist Church and assigned Bishop of Arkansas since 2012. Bishop Mueller will be interviewed by committee member Michael McMurray. Let's record our history.

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the United States Congress.

Job Opening

Position: Oral/Digital Recording History Intern.

The primary purpose of this internship is to assist in the collecting of oral recorded interviews of significant persons throughout the Arkansas Methodist Conference. For more info, visit our website: arumc.org or email: ummac.lr.org.
